

I am a widow and K-Love has been very uplifting during the past two years. Other stations do not give me purpose to live. The station plays a "middle-ground" variety of music, not too churchy and not too wild. It encourages people, provides answers, creates a loving atmosphere. We have it on at work and I have it in my car too,